

Braya Renewable Fuels Celebrates the Come by Chance Refinery's Commercial Operations Start as a Renewable Diesel Facility and its 50-year Legacy in the Community

On April 24, 2024, Braya Renewable Fuels hosted members of federal, provincial and local government, and key stakeholders and partners to celebrate Braya's renewable legacy and 50 years at the Come By Chance Refinery.

The Honourable Seamus O'Regan, Minister of Labour and Seniors & Member of Parliament St. John's South – Mount Pearl, The Honourable Andrew Furey, Premier of Newfoundland and Labrador and The Honourable Andrew Parsons, Minister of Industry, Energy and Technology presented remarks and congratulations to Braya staff and key partners on the contributions being made to the future of renewable energy.

From L to R back: Jim Stump (President of Refining); Todd O'Malley (CEO); Gayle Brenton-Smith (VP of HR & OHS); Hon. Andrew Parsons, Minister of Industry, Energy and Technology.
From L to R front: Churence Rogers, MP Bonavista—Burin—Trinity; Hon. Seamus O'Regan, Minister of Labour and Seniors & Member of Parliament St. John's South – Mount Pearl; Paul Burton (Refinery Manager); Hon. Andrew Furey, Premier of Newfoundland & Labrador; Mayor Carol Molloy, Come By Chance